Anne Beaudry

Languages: English, French

After graduating from York University with an Honors' degree in Theatre, Anne went on to earn two postgraduate degrees in the United States and Europe. With over 25 years of experience in television, corporate and live events, she is known for her intuitive style, her humour, her seamless transition between French and English and her ability to make all shows, regardless of the content, accessible to the audience.

In the last few years, Anne has leveraged her extensive bilingual experience as a host and script editor, and turned to writing scripts for many conference and galas.

As a script editor Anne has worked on event scripts for Canada Post, The Canadian Nurses Association, Canadian Association of Engineers, Pharma Prix, the Canadian Export Awards, United Way Canada and United Way Ottawa, Deloitte's 50 Best Managed, Agri Food, to name a few. Anne also wrote all the 2008 scripts for the video portion of Canada Day on Parliament Hill as well as the noon and evening scripts for the live CBC broadcasts, and was responsible for all scripts pertaining to the annual OK Tire conferences and award shows from 2009 to 2011.
