Lynn Tarzwell

LANGUAGES: ENGLISH

Writer-actor Lynn Mason Tarzwell has decades of experience scripting for media, the stage and interactive media. Lynn has written scripts for animated series such as Franklin the Turtle, Caillou and For Better or For Worse, live action series, documentaries, multimedia, videos, speeches and the stage. She is a professional voice actor on television and radio in roles such as Elly Patterson on the FBOFW series. Lynn recently was the story editor on the 26-episode award-winning math series for TVO, Prime Radicals.

She also has extensive corporate experience, particularly with Canadian Heritage, Solicitor General Canada, Parks Canada, the Canadian Space Agency, Citizenship and Immigration, Human Resources Development Canada, and the National Research Council. Her work on Ban Landmines! for the DFAIT was a factor in its ITVA Gold Medal, New York Festival Silver Award, Chicago International Film & Video Festival Bronze Award and other wins for educational multimedia.

Lynn is very well connected with the local film and television production community and has extensive personal contacts with Toronto broadcasters and producers, including HBO, the Movie Network, the CBC, CTV, Comedy, Bravo, Shaw Media, Entertainment One, Super Channel, DHX Media, Portfolio Entertainment, and Temple Street Productions. She is interested in any and all film and television projects, whether as a writer-for-hire, story editor, script consultant or supervisor, and abso-lutely game for new creative challenges.

She is married to writer/actor John Tarzwell, has two terrific daughters.
