Over the years Ross has proven himself to be a versatile writer with a finely tuned ear for dialogue that rings true to each character in a script. As a member of ex improv comedy troupe Skit Row he wrote or co-wrote numerous sketches, songs and diverse bits of silliness. As well, he has written dozens of dinner mysteries produced in Ottawa, Toronto and Vancouver. Ross also wrote for the animated series Freaky Fridays, For Better or For Worse and Toad Patrol. Throw in some stand-up comedy routines, radio commercials, TV pilots and outlines, screenplays, one act plays, and 20 episodes of the TVO series The Prime Radicals and you have one darn eclectic writer.
