Huges Beaudoin-Dumouchel

Languages: French, English

Huges Beaudoin-Dumouchel is a fluently bilingual Ottawa native who has always had a passion for being on stage. Over the course of his twelve year career, Huges has honed his skills as master of ceremonies by hosting various events for a wide range of clients including the City of Ottawa, United Way, Engineers Canada, the National Trust for Canada, Winterlude and Canada Day.

Huges' clients always mention his professionalism and charisma, as well as his smooth and unaccented delivery in both official languages. They also mention his keen interviewing skills when he hosts round-table discussions and one-on-one interviews for repeat clients such as the Museum of Civilization, the Salon du livre de l'Outaouais and the National Arts Centre.

Huges is also a bilingual voice-over artist. On television, Huges was the host of Coups Francs and Court-circuit as well as electoral results night (TV Rogers) and collaborator for Changer d'air (Radio-Canada). On the radio side, Huges's voice has been heard both as a host on Espace Musique (CBC Radio Two) and as collaborator for various shows on Ici Radio-Canada Première (CBC Radio One).
